

DISCLAIMER

It has come to our notice that a dismissed staff of the Industrial Training Fund (ITF), Mr. Ayuba Mallam Audu, (who is pictured here) has been parading himself as a staff of the Fund, and has in the process, defrauded some unsuspecting contributing employers of various sums.

The Industrial Training Fund wishes to state that Mr Ayuba Mallam Audu was dismissed from its services on May 16, 2016, for acts of malfeasance and duplicity. He is, therefore, not a staff of the Fund and not authorized to act on its behalf.

It must be reiterated that in line with extant Federal Government financial regulations guiding the operations of Ministries, Departments and Agencies, and which are strictly adhered to by the ITF, no officer of the Fund is authorized to collect cash from contributing employers on its behalf.

All clients are therefore advised to conduct business and transactions directly with our Area Offices, Training Centres, the Corporate Office in Abuja and the Headquarters in Jos.

The General Public and all our clients are by this notice warned not to engage in any transactions with Mr. Ayuba Mallam Audu as he is not representing the ITF.

The Industrial Training Fund hereby disclaims liability for incidental and consequential damages and assumes no responsibility for any loss or damage suffered by any person as a result of not verifying transactions with our various registered offices.

Signed
